

WSU Libraries

Services, spaces, resources

Spaces

- 3 Pullman campus libraries
- 24/5 extended hours
- Group and individual study spaces

Study spaces

Knowledge check!

- How many group study rooms are in Holland and Terrell Libraries?
- If you need to find a book on organic chemistry, which library would you go to?

Services

- 24/7 help with research
- Technology
- Classes in research skills

Knowledge check!

- It's after midnight, and you are having trouble finding articles for a class project. What can you do?
- What are the hours for Holland and Terrell Libraries?

Resources: in the library

- More than 3 million print volumes
 - Books
 - Journals
 - Magazines
 - and more
- Over 30,000 media items
 - Music
 - Movies
- Course reserves

Resources: in the library

- How the f*&! do I find something in the library?
- Two common types of call numbers: Dewey and Library of Congress (LC)
- Use the Stack Chart to help you locate items in the library.

Resources: online

- Search It
- Over 150 electronic databases
- Access to millions of electronic articles
- Available 24/7 with your WSU ID and password using the Libraries website

Knowledge check!

- How many print volumes do the WSU Libraries own?
- What is the call number system most used in the WSU Libraries?

- Find a librarian
- Find a reference desk
- Research guides

Getting help

You don't have to fight through the research jungle all alone.

Final knowledge check!

- The following is an example of what type of call number?
822.3 C188s
- You have a paper due in your child psychology class. It requires you to use at least one book. In which library are you most likely to find books that cover this topic?
- How can you access the Libraries' online resources, such as Search It or other databases, if you are off campus?

Questions? Need help?

Holly Luetkenhaus

Email: holly.luetkenhaus@wsu.edu

Phone: 509-335-4667

Twitter: @LibrarianHollyL

Reference desk: Thursdays, 11am-12pm

Virtual reference (IM): Fridays, 12pm-2:30pm